Composed and Performed by Dearborn 6th Grade Classes

Classroom Cantatas

Dearborn Middle School

True Friendship

© Cantata Singers, 2001
True Friendship

Chorale (Respect)
Amir
Confidence
Friendship
Just Be a Leader
Chorale
(Respect)

Words and Music by the 6-4 Class
Henry Dearborn Middle School
Roxbury, Massachusetts
Charles Kanelos, Language Arts Teacher

Lively Swing

Treat people how you want to be treated.
Have respect for each other.

And you will be treated with respect.
And make a lot of friends.

Treat people how you want to be treated.

© 2001 by the Cantata Singers
Have respect for each other. And you will be treated with respect.

And make a lot of friends. And make a lot of friends.
Amir, Amir

Words and Music by Aisha Brockington, Lisa Cabral, Anthony Centeio, Avery Jones, Aytron Tavanas, Airizela Monteiro, Laura Rodriguez
Grade 6-8, Henry Dearborn Middle School

©2001 by the Cantata Singers
Both have courage of going to foster homes.

Amir, Amir, Amir.

r.h. may double melody
mir. He believes in every one.
mir, Amir, Amir. He believes in every one.
Confidence

Words and music by Fallon Holloway-Lewis, Jennay Campbell, Joshua Rivera, Kristin Babbitt, Laurentina Teixeira & Terrell Stokes
Grade 6-4, Henry Dearborn Middle School

Cheerfully (4=148)

You should always have confidence, the courage to believe in yourself. Courage is an everyday thing.

© 2001 by the Cantata Singers
Life is nothing but changes, like, soon as something gets settled, something else goes wrong.

No one should put you down, no one should take it away.

Confidence, confidence.
Even if your judgment goes wrong, confidence will steer you right.

You should always have confidence, the courage to believe in yourself.
Friendship

Joyfully ($\text{}= 138$)

Voices

Piano

friend-ship, friend-ship,
friend-ship, friend-ship.
It's
friend-ship, friend-ship,
friend-ship, friend-ship.
Friend-ship is like
a
person that you care for.
Friend-ship is like
a
person that helps you out.

© 2001 by the Cantata Singers
It's Friendship, pg 2

Friend-ship is like fam-i-ly. To me, friend-ship is good. It's friend-ship, friend-ship, friend-ship, friend-ship. It's friend-ship, friend-ship, friend-ship, friend-ship. It's good be-cause you can trust your friend. It's good be-cause you can re-ly on your friend. It takes courage to care for someone. It's the most beautiful thing in your life.

It's Friendship, pg 3

It's friendship, friendship, friendship, friendship.

Suddenly slowing down

friendship, friendship, friendship, friendship.

It's Molto ritard.

Very Slowly

friendship, friendship, friendship, friendship.

Very Slowly
Just Be a Leader

Words and Music by Abdirahman Abdillahi, Elton Andrade, Jason Coutain, Francis Garcia, Ashley Gilmete-Sykes, Rosemary Roland & Nelson Sequeira

Grade 6-4, Henry Dearborn Middle School

Moderato ($\frac{\text{b}}{4} = 112$)

Voices

Piano

(Opporatal: Double vocal line throughout)

It's not easy being the odd one out, To make new friends, To move to a new city, or even to a foster home.

Don't be a follower. It's good to be different. Be your own person.

© 2001 by the Cantata Singers
Be who you are. Go your own way.

Use your own mind. Make your own decisions.

Don't be a follower. Just be a leader. Just be a leader.

Just be a leader.