Composed andPerformedby
Ms. Timas’s 4th Grade Class

Classroom Cantatas

Emerson Elementary School

Math in Our World

© Cantata Singers, 1998
Math in Our World

a cantata written and performed by
Ms. Timas's 4th Grade Class
Ralph Waldo Emerson Elementary School
Dr. Robert Salamone, Principal
Kathleen MacDougald, supervising music teacher
Benvinda Timas, cooperating teacher

CLASSROOM CANTATAS

Sponsored By The Cantata Singers
Let's collect the data to solve this matter to eliminate this cluster of violence. We are going to multiply the love and happiness—and divide with all.

Nu ben junta-informação pà nu resol-ve-es si-tua-cão nu ten qui ca-ba cu vi-o-len-cia-nu mes-te mul-ti-plí-ca a-mor e se-li-ci-da-de pa nu di-vi-di pa tu-do__

DIVIDE AND SHARE

WORDS AND MUSIC BY SALAMITA AFONSECA, CARLOS CARDOSO, MANUELA FERNANDES, NATALIA GONCALVES, KATHY TEIXEIRA

Let's divide and share all that is good and honest.

Let's share our friendship so that we can have happiness.

To show that we care, we need to respect each other; when love is equally shared,

we can divide happiness for everyone.

Sempre.

© COPYRIGHT 1998 BY THE CANTATA SINGERS, INC.
Love should be added to everyone's heart. My parents show me love and respect and kindness. Compassion should be added to everyone's heart.

We can show love, compassion and forgiveness. Let's show unity.
so we can have peace in our world community

Peace should be added to everyone's heart when we all do our share rit.

we can have a peaceful day.
we need to work in our world by subtracting all the violence. Nos merece que trabajemos en nuestro mundo no vio-ciliéense. We don't need drugs, we don't need alcohol; let's subtract all the violence. Nos camisetan.

© COPYRIGHT 1998 BY THE CANTATA SINGERS, INC.
(Subtract the Violence, cont.)

(dro-ga. No-s ca-mi-sti al-co-hol, nu sub-tra-i)

(vi-o- len-cia.)
1. I would like to multiply happiness with joy and laughter. Let's do this together: Now isn't happiness better? Happy, happy, happy, joy, joy, joy. Use it in your words; have it in your world. I see this picture in my heart that cannot be a-part: Love, kindness, fun and care for everyone to share. Happy, happy, happy, joy, joy, joy; Use it in your
Multiply Happiness, continued.

Group 2

Group 1

Happy, happy, happy

words; have it in your world. Happy, happy, happy, joy, joy, joy;

joy, joy, joy; Use it in your words, have it in your world. Have it in your world.

use it in your words, have it in your world. Happy, happy, happy