Dark as the color black,

Dark as coal,

midnight the attack on Deerfield began!
Craack! The people cried and screamed.

The whole town was a-light in flames.
But Eu-nice sur-vived with her

Worried, hungry and cold, Eu-nice knew her mo-ther died because she could-n't keep up. She was scared, se-para-ted from her fam-i-ly. She feared her life was ending.

On-ly se-ven, She last-ed on the jour-ney, as a lit-tle one car-ried by her new In-di-an friend. Wor-ried, hun-gry, and cold.

Eu-nice lived in Ka-na-wa-ke with the In-di-ans. And did-n't see her fam-ly for years. She had dif-f'rent food and clothes, she was scared when she was se-ven, but felt hap-py with her In-dian fa-ther.

talk to each oth-er?  May-be they made plans to see each oth-er again.

We Feel Sad for Eunice Williams

With Great Feeling

Voices

We feel sad for Eunice Williams,
Sad for the Indians,

too. The Puritans took their land.
Sometimes that makes me mad.

Slower

Sad that her family was kidnapped,
But finally they got together again.
